

Change of Name from Swaziland Communications Commission (SCCOM) to Eswatini Communications Commission (ESCCOM)

Following pronouncement of the country name change made by His Majesty King Mswati III on the occasion of the 50-50 national celebrations on the 19th April 2018, to the Kingdom of Eswatini, the Communications Commission (SCCOM) would like to inform the nation, partners and all stakeholders, that effective from the 1st August 2018, the commission will now be known as Eswatini Communications Commission (ESCCOM).

All other necessary changes which are in line with the foregoing shall be communicated and effected in due course.

The Commission shall continue to be a dynamic regulator of communications services that facilitates the delivery of affordable, sustainable and quality services.

Ms Lindiwe Dlamini
Acting Chief Executive